

Media Report 06 Jan 2023

This weeks media reports will cover and answer great questions veterans are still asking and local Media Articles and An illness or injury can have an impact on your ability to adjust to life after service. We all need healthcare services. The Treatment benefits program provides coverage for a variety of benefits and services to help you get—and stay healthy

The concept for Salute Her UK came into being in 2017. Funding from the Department for Digital Culture Media and Sport (DCMS) allowed the employment of a full time mental health therapist to develop a gender specific service for women veterans. The website, promotional materials, info-graph and a recent 'Five Eyes' International conference looking at international approaches to addressing Military Sexual Trauma were all funded by the Churchill Fellowship, Activate Fund.

- Warwick University [ UK] has declared "Ivanhoe" a novel from Sir Walter Scott [ 1802] to be "racist". Furious descendant Matthew Maxwell-Scott brands Warwick's 'a coward's charter' as academics highlight 'offensive' content. READ

- Sandhurst- a toxic culture of sexual assault? <https://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/2022/12/27/sandhurst-urged-tackle-toxic-culture-177-women-claim-sexual/>
- Our own Louise Arbour has been prominent in addressing issues of discrimination/harassment. RMC is now in her sights. <https://www.canada.ca/en/department-national-defence/corporate/reports-publications/report-of-the-independent-external-comprehensive-review.html> RMC gave her an Honourary degree late 1990's. The funny thing about reports is that sometimes they leave out more than they put in?
- Women veterans in the United Kingdom are an invisible, marginalised and frequently ignored population within the veteran community. Salute Her UK is a strong voice advocating for a holistic, compassionate continuum of services, treatment and care for our women veterans, families, care givers and care providers. <https://www.saluteheruk.co.uk/>
