

One Veteran's insights about leaving the Forces

<https://www.veterans.gc.ca/eng/art-hub/shawn-patterson>

The Department of National Defence and Veterans Affairs Canada release 2018 reports on suicide mortality

<https://www.canada.ca/en/department-national-defence/news/2019/04/the-department-of-national-defence-and-veterans-affairs-canada-release-2018-reports-on-suicide-mortality.html>

Le ministère de la Défense nationale et Anciens Combattants Canada publient des rapports sur la mortalité par suicide pour 2018

<https://www.canada.ca/fr/ministere-defense-nationale/nouvelles/2019/04/le-ministere-de-la-defense-nationale-et-anciens-combattants-canada-publient-des-rapport.html>

TULIP FESTIVAL 2019: Veterans Day at Beechwood Cemetery May 14 th 2019

Greetings, Peacekeepers all.

This year's Canadian Tulip Festival is celebrating the direct ties the Festival has to the Liberation of the Netherlands and the gifting of tulips to Canada, as well as commemorating the 75th anniversary of the D-Day landings. To recognize these historic events, the Canadian Tulip Festival is hosting Veterans Day at Beechwood Cemetery, the National Military Cemetery.

This year's Veterans Day Ceremony will be taking place:

When: Tuesday, May 14th 2019 at 11:00 AM

Where: Veterans Section (Section 27, near the Beechwood Tank)

280 Beechwood Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario

Veterans Day Ceremony will honour the service and sacrifice of all Canadian forces and Canadian and Allied Veterans.

The Festival will also be naming its 2019 honorary Veterans for Navy, Army, and Air Force.

“Given your esteemed contribution and service to our country, we would like to invite you or your designate to be present at the official ceremony.”

In fact, Wayne has learned that they would welcome participation from more than just a representative so if you are interested in attending, pls contact him directly at the email address wdraths@gmail.com NLT Tuesday April 30th.

David Raths, President

CAVUNP Ottawa

Annual Base Borden ceremony remembers lives lost in tragic explosion

Canadian Military Family Magazine

This past March, a small contingent from the Canadian Forces Ammunition Depot at Base Borden gathered at the cenotaph in the Village of Angus, just north of the base to remember lives that were lost in a tragic explosion. The ceremony was led by current Depot Commanding Officer Major Melissa Manley. READ MORE

Des dizaines de militaires sur le terrain pour une simulation médicale

TVA Nouvelles

L'armée et des intervenants d'urgence ont vécu une simulation très réaliste d'un incendie de grande ampleur hier matin à Montréal afin d'être prêts à faire face à n'importe quelle catastrophe. « C'est pas mal le chaos, illustre le Dr William Bérard, étudiant de quatrième année du Programme de médecine d'urgence spécialisée de l'Université de Montréal. LIRE PLUS

Injured veterans turning to medical marijuana in increasing numbers

CTV News

The number of injured veterans using medical marijuana has skyrocketed, according to Veterans Affairs Canada, while opioid use has decreased. A cocktail of pills and prescription drugs was once the only option for struggling veterans dealing with painful, life-changing injuries. Retired Army Maj. Mark Campbell lost both legs after an explosion during his last tour in Afghanistan. He had been given opioids and other prescription drugs to reduce the pain. READ MORE

Waterloo firm gives landmine removal new life

Waterloo Region Record

A team of Waterloo engineers is breathing new life into the tedious and dangerous task of unearthing landmines around the world. Demine Robotics has unveiled its newest landmine-unearthing robot called Jevit — the Khmer word for “life” — and will test it in a real minefield within the next few months. It's the latest version of the robot that was first developed in 2016, when the company was known as Landmine Boys. READ MORE

Retour au pays de troupes de Valcartier déployées en Ukraine

45e Nord

Une centaine de militaires de Valcartier sont rentrés au pays en fin de soirée le 14 avril au terme d'un déploiement de plus de sept mois en Ukraine dans le cadre de l'Opération UNIFIER. La majorité des militaires sont issus du 1er Bataillon, Royal 22e Régiment, chapeauté par le 5e Groupe-brigade mécanisé du Canada basé à Valcartier. Le reste du contingent, soit environ 70 militaires additionnels, est rentré à la maison au début du mois. LIRE PLUS

Nuclear war plans: How Moscow would survive an atomic attack \(lots of bunkers\)

National Interest

The “sphere” style of bunker was developed as a way to improve the survivability of shallow bunkers since shallow bunkers are cheaper to build than deeper ones. To attain greater survivability, an outer bunker is made in the form of a sphere. This sphere is placed inside a shallow circular shaft. Shock absorbers are placed around the sphere connecting into an internal bunker. Those absorbers cushion the occupants from the shock waves of a nuclear explosion. READ MORE

Combat Engineers compete at Fort Leonard Wood to prove they are the Army's best sappers

St. Louis Public Radio

“Sapper” is the Army's nickname for the combat engineers who take on a variety of duties all centered around clearing the way for infantry to get where they need to go. The name comes from the French word "sappe," meaning to undermine and collapse a wall. Fifty two-person teams of sappers from around the world are at Fort Leonard Wood in the Missouri Ozarks to compete against each other in an event designed to test the wide-ranging skills a sapper needs. READ MORE

101st takes home 'Best Sapper' and 'Best Ranger' honours in U.S. Army competition

Clarksville Now

Two soldiers assigned to Fort Campbell, KY, won the 13th annual Lt. Gen. Robert B. Flowers Best Sapper Competition. Capt. John Baer and 1st Lt. Terence Hughes, both of 39th Brigade Engineer Battalion, 2nd Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), competed against 47 two-man teams from across the Army. READ MORE

Vers un nouveau motif de camouflage pour les Forces armées canadiennes ?

45e Nord

De récentes photos apparues sur Reddit et les réseaux sociaux d'un potentiel nouveau uniforme ont fait coulé beaucoup beaucoup d'encre, ou en tout cas ont déclenché une série innombrables de commentaires! 45eNord.ca a donc posé la question directement à Ottawa pour savoir ce qu'il en était réellement. LIRE PLUS

Explosion at Russia's Military Space Academy leaves 4 seriously hurt after 'bombs' spark evacuation

The Sun

Four people including two bomb disposal experts and a teacher were hurt in an explosion that rocked a military space academy in St. Petersburg. Local news sites said a homemade bomb destroyed a staircase at the prestigious Mozhaysky Academy — as cops said they were treating it attempted mass murder. READ MORE

Landmines take growing toll in Afghanistan conflict

Daily Mail

At a rehabilitation centre in Afghanistan, Imran Gul clasped two parallel bars, cautiously easing his weight onto his new leg. The 25-year-old nomad had been driving a tractor on hilly farmland when a landmine exploded, making him the latest victim of a scourge that has worsened in recent years as fighting intensifies between the government and the Taliban. "I did not hear the sound of the bomb," Gul told AFP as he tried out his prosthetic limb. READ MORE

Une nouvelle plaque du Québec pour les vétérans

La Presse

Les vétérans (anciens combattants) auront droit à une nouvelle plaque d'immatriculation commémorative. L'annonce a été faite par le ministre des Transports François Bonnardel, en présence de M. Kenneth R. Ouellet, président de la direction québécoise de la Légion royale canadienne. La nouvelle plaque représente un champ de coquelicots et le visage vu de profil de deux soldats, une femme et d'un homme. Elle porte la mention « vétérans ». LIRE PLUS

3 Marines killed in IED attack near Bagram Air Base

USNI

Three Marines were recently killed in an improvised explosive device attack near Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan, Secretary of the Navy Richard V. Spencer told a Senate panel. Staff Sgt. Christopher K.A. Slutman, 43, of Newark, Del., Cpl. Robert A. Hendriks, 25, of Locust Valley, N.Y. and Sgt. Benjamin S. Hines, 31, of York, Penn. were near Bagram Air Base in a convoy when they were attacked. They were assigned to 25th Marine Regiment, 4th Marine Division, Marine Forces Reserve. An unspecified number of other troops were also injured in the attack and treated, according to a Pentagon statement. READ MORE

Canada increases contribution to multinational counter-terrorism naval task force

Government of Canada

Canada has significantly increased its contribution to Operation ARTEMIS, the Canadian Armed Forces' (CAF) ongoing contribution to counter-terrorism and maritime security operations in Middle Eastern and East African waters. Her Majesty's Canadian Ship (HMCS) Regina, Naval Replenishment Unit (NRU) Asterix, and a CP-140 Aurora aircraft have joined the Canadian-led Combined Task Force 150 (CTF 150). CTF 150 is a task force under Combined Maritime Forces, a naval coalition of 33 nations, that promotes security and stability in Middle Eastern and East African waters. READ MORE

Old ammo, TNT safely neutralized in East Vancouver neighbourhood

Global News

Vancouver police dispatched their experts last night to an East Vancouver neighbourhood to safely dispose of some explosive material a resident had discovered in a storage locker. Last week, the VPD were called to an apartment building on East 37th Avenue near Victoria Drive after someone cleaning out a deceased family member's storage locker found a box of old ammunition and explosives. READ MORE

Anniversary of Vimy Ridge commemorated in Cloverdale ceremony

North Delta Reporter

Veterans, cadets and dignitaries from across the Lower Mainland recently came to Cloverdale to commemorate the 102nd anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge. The service honoured those who fought at Vimy Ridge, including Surrey soldiers whose names are inscribed on the Cloverdale Cenotaph at the centre of the service, Harry Triggs and Frank Donald Aish. READ MORE

Les ministres de la Défense et des Anciens combattants soulignent le Jour de la bataille de la crête de Vimy

45e Nord

Lawrence MacAulay, ministre des Anciens Combattants et ministre associé de la Défense nationale, et Harjit S. Sajjan, ministre de la Défense nationale, ont fait la déclaration suivante pour souligner le Jour de la bataille de la crête de Vimy : « Il y a plus d'un siècle aujourd'hui, durant la Première Guerre mondiale, le Corps canadien a avancé sur les positions défensives allemandes sur la crête de Vimy dans le nord de la France. LIRE PLUS

The hot cold war: Inside Canada's military training mission in Ukraine

CBC News

It's a long way from the killing fields of Kandahar to the laneways of Lviv, Ukraine — but for Lt.-Col. Pierre Leroux, the newer conflict carries some echoes of the older one. When Leroux arrived in Afghanistan in the fall of 2010, the Canadian army was helping to train Afghan forces to fight in the middle of a shooting war with the insurgent Taliban. In 2019, Leroux leads the Canadian task force training Ukrainian soldiers to fight an equally deadly, hot-and-cold conventional war with Russian-backed separatists in Ukraine's eastern regions. READ MORE

600 military vehicles moves through Capital Region

Sherwood Park News

You may have recently spotted some Canada Forces vehicles driving around Strathcona County. Military personnel were moving the vehicles from Canadian Forces Base Edmonton to Wainwright for a large-scale military exercise. Convoys of military vehicles were driving through the area until Saturday, April 6. Around 600 vehicles in total are making the trip, which has them start east on Anthony Henday Drive. READ MORE

Watchdog: Canadian military spying activities require more scrutiny

Huffington Post

A national-security watchdog has called for stricter controls on the Canadian military's spying, including the possibility of legislation spelling out when and how defence intelligence operations can take place. In a report issued recently, the National Security and Intelligence Committee of Parliamentarians said National Defence and the Canadian Armed Forces have one of the largest intelligence programs in Canada, yet these operations get little outside scrutiny. READ MORE

Forces armées: une centaine de militaires s'envolent vers l'Ukraine

TVA Nouvelles

Plus d'une centaine de militaires de Valcartier s'envoleront vers l'Ukraine aujourd'hui, dans le cadre de l'opération UNIFIER, qui vise à soutenir les forces de sécurité ukrainiennes. Les militaires, principalement du 5e Groupe-brigade mécanisé du Canada (5 GBMC), seront en déploiement pour une durée du six à sept mois. LIRE PLUS

U.S. Army funds research on nanoporous materials for water purification

University of Arkansas

Contaminants from munitions can make their way into our water supply through runoff, and they are surprisingly common pollutants. Hassan Beyzavi, an assistant professor in the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, is investigating the use of nanoporous structures to detect and remove these contaminants in water. His research is supported with an award from the U.S. Army Small Business Innovation Research Program. READ MORE

Mefloquine lawsuits set to be filed by veterans in the next week

Global News

Dave Bona spent 14 years with the Canadian Armed Forces. He plans to soon to launch a lawsuit against the government over the mental and physical health issues he said were caused by the antimalarial drug, mefloquine. Bona, 51, was deployed to Somalia in 1992 and Rwanda in 1994. He said he took mefloquine for a total of 13 months during the two deployments. READ MORE

100 kilometres on snowshoes: Harrowing Arctic journey bonds military and civilian women

CBC News

As a flight service specialist, Teresa Griffith monitors weather conditions from her office in Leduc, south of Edmonton. But this week, she's trekking through snow and wind in Canada's North. Griffith recently began a two-week female-led expedition through Nunavut's Baffin Island. The group of 14 women, along with guides and support staff, are snowshoeing 100 kilometres through Akshayuk Pass, a natural corridor cutting through

mountains and ice. READ MORE

Le Canada doit vite augmenter sa présence militaire en Arctique, insiste un député

Radio-Canada

Le coprésident canadien de la Commission permanente mixte de défense Canada-États-Unis, le député libéral John McKay, prévient que si le Canada n'agit pas maintenant, il pourrait perdre son emprise sur l'Arctique, à mesure que la Russie développe la militarisation de cette région. LIRE PLUS

International Mine Awareness Day

United Nations Development Programme

UNDP has supported mine action initiatives — Development and Mine Action — since 1993, when we launched our first program in Cambodia. Since then, UNDP has supported mine action programs in over 40 countries. In close cooperation with civil society, donors and our UN partners, we have focused on capacity building of Member States and governments, and linking mine action centrally to our core mandate which is development.

READ MORE

Japanese space probe Hayabusa2 drops explosive onto asteroid Ryugu, apparently making crater to collect samples from underground

CBS News

Japan's space agency said an explosive recently dropped from its Hayabusa2 spacecraft successfully blasted the surface of an asteroid for the first time to form a crater and pave the way for the collection of underground samples for possible clues to the origin of the solar system. The mission was the riskiest for Hayabusa2 because it had to immediately move away so it wouldn't get hit by flying shards from the blast. READ MORE

Media Report 19 April 2019

One Veteran's insights about leaving the Forces

<https://www.veterans.gc.ca/eng/art-hub/shawn-patterson>

The Department of National Defence and Veterans Affairs Canada release 2018 reports on suicide mortality

<https://www.canada.ca/en/department-national-defence/news/2019/04/the-department-of-national-defence-and-veterans-affairs-canada-release-2018-reports-on-suicide-mortality.html>

Le ministère de la Défense nationale et Anciens Combattants Canada publient des rapports sur la mortalité par suicide pour 2018

<https://www.canada.ca/fr/ministere-defense-nationale/nouvelles/2019/04/le-ministere-de-la-defense-nationale-et-anciens-combattants-canada-publent-des-rapport.html>

TULIP FESTIVAL 2019: Veterans Day at Beechwood Cemetery May 14 th 2019

Greetings, Peacekeepers all.

This year's Canadian Tulip Festival is celebrating the direct ties the Festival has to the Liberation of the Netherlands and the gifting of tulips to Canada, as well as commemorating the 75th anniversary of the D-Day landings. To recognize these historic events, the Canadian Tulip Festival is hosting Veterans Day at Beechwood Cemetery, the National Military Cemetery.

This year's Veterans Day Ceremony will be taking place:

When: Tuesday, May 14th 2019 at 11:00 AM

Where: Veterans Section (Section 27, near the Beechwood Tank)

280 Beechwood Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario

Veterans Day Ceremony will honour the service and sacrifice of all Canadian forces and Canadian and Allied Veterans.

The Festival will also be naming its 2019 honorary Veterans for Navy, Army, and Air Force.

"Given your esteemed contribution and service to our country, we would like to invite you or your designate to be present at the official ceremony."

In fact, Wayne has learned that they would welcome participation from more than just a representative so if you are interested in attending, pls contact him directly at the email address wdraths@gmail.com NLT Tuesday April 30th.

David Raths, President

CAVUNP Ottawa

Annual Base Borden ceremony remembers lives lost in tragic explosion

Canadian Military Family Magazine

This past March, a small contingent from the Canadian Forces Ammunition Depot at Base Borden gathered at the cenotaph in the Village of Angus, just north of the base to remember lives that were lost in a tragic explosion. The ceremony was led by current Depot Command Officer Major Melissa Manley. READ MORE

Des dizaines de militaires sur le terrain pour une simulation médicale

TVA Nouvelles

L'armée et des intervenants d'urgence ont vécu une simulation très réaliste d'un incendie de grande ampleur hier matin à Montréal afin d'être prêts à faire face à n'importe quelle catastrophe. « C'est pas mal le chaos, illustre le Dr William Bérard, étudiant de quatrième année du Programme de médecine d'urgence spécialisée de l'Université de Montréal. LIRE PLUS

Injured veterans turning to medical marijuana in increasing numbers

CTV News

The number of injured veterans using medical marijuana has skyrocketed, according to Veterans Affairs Canada, while opioid use has decreased. A cocktail of pills and prescription drugs was once the only option for struggling veterans dealing with painful, life-changing injuries. Retired Army Maj. Mark Campbell lost both legs after an explosion during his last tour in Afghanistan. He had been given opioids and other prescription drugs to reduce the pain.

READ MORE

Waterloo firm gives landmine removal new life

Waterloo Region Record

A team of Waterloo engineers is breathing new life into the tedious and dangerous task of unearthing landmines around the world. Demine Robotics has unveiled its newest landmine-unearthing robot called Jevit — the Khmer word for “life” — and will test it in a real minefield within the next few months. It's the latest version of the robot that was first developed in 2007 when the company was known as Landmine Boys. READ MORE

Retour au pays de troupes de Valcartier déployées en Ukraine

45e Nord

Une centaine de militaires de Valcartier sont rentrés au pays en fin de soirée le 14 avril au terme d'un déploiement de plus de sept mois en Ukraine dans le cadre de l'Opération UNIFI. La majorité des militaires sont issus du 1er Bataillon, Royal 22e Régiment, chapeauté par le Groupe-brigade mécanisé du Canada basé à Valcartier. Le reste du contingent, soit environ 100 militaires additionnels, est rentré à la maison au début du mois. LIRE PLUS

Nuclear war plans: How Moscow would survive an atomic attack \(lots of bunkers\)

National Interest

The “sphere” style of bunker was developed as a way to improve the survivability of shallow bunkers since shallow bunkers are cheaper to build than deeper ones. To attain greater survivability, an outer bunker is made in the form of a sphere. This sphere is placed inside a shallow circular shaft. Shock absorbers are placed around the sphere connecting into an internal bunker. Those absorbers cushion the occupants from the shock waves of a nuclear explosion. READ MORE

Combat Engineers compete at Fort Leonard Wood to prove they are the Army's best sappers

St. Louis Public Radio

“Sapper” is the Army's nickname for the combat engineers who take on a variety of duties centered around clearing the way for infantry to get where they need to go. The name comes from the French word “sappe,” meaning to undermine and collapse a wall. Fifty two-person teams of sappers from around the world are at Fort Leonard Wood in the Missouri Ozarks to compete against each other in an event designed to test the wide-ranging skills a sapper needs. READ MORE

101st takes home 'Best Sapper' and 'Best Ranger' honours in U.S. Army competition

Clarksville Now

Two soldiers assigned to Fort Campbell, KY, won the 13th annual Lt. Gen. Robert B. Flowers Best Sapper Competition. Capt. John Baer and 1st Lt. Terence Hughes, both of 39th Brigade Engineer Battalion, 2nd Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault), competed against 47 two-man teams from across the Army. READ MORE

**Vers un nouveau motif de camouflage pour les Forces armées canadiennes ?**

45e Nord

De récentes photos apparues sur Reddit et les réseaux sociaux d'un potentiel nouveau uniforme ont fait coulé beaucoup beaucoup d'encre, ou en tout cas ont déclenché une série innombrable de commentaires! 45eNord.ca a donc posé la question directement à Ottawa pour savoir ce qu'il en était réellement. **LIRE PLUS**

**Explosion at Russia's Military Space Academy leaves 4 seriously hurt after 'bombs' spark evacuation**

The Sun

Four people including two bomb disposal experts and a teacher were hurt in an explosion that rocked a military space academy in St. Petersburg. Local news sites said a homemade bomb destroyed a staircase at the prestigious Mozhaisky Academy — as cops said they were treating it as an attempted mass murder. **READ MORE**

**Landmines take growing toll in Afghanistan conflict**

Daily Mail

At a rehabilitation centre in Afghanistan, Imran Gul clasped two parallel bars, cautiously easing his weight onto his new leg. The 25-year-old nomad had been driving a tractor on his hilly farm when a landmine exploded, making him the latest victim of a scourge that has worsened in recent years as fighting intensifies between the government and the Taliban. "I did not hear the sound of the bomb," Gul told AFP as he tried out his prosthetic limb. **READ MORE**

**Une nouvelle plaque du Québec pour les vétérans**

La Presse

Les vétérans (anciens combattants) auront droit à une nouvelle plaque d'immatriculation commémorative. L'annonce a été faite par le ministre des Transports François Bonnardel, en présence de M. Kenneth R. Ouellet, président de la direction québécoise de la Légion royale canadienne. La nouvelle plaque représente un champ de coquelicots et le visage vu de profil de deux soldats, une femme et d'un homme. Elle porte la mention « vétérans ». **LIRE PLUS**

**3 Marines killed in IED attack near Bagram Air Base**

USNI

Three Marines were recently killed in an improvised explosive device attack near Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan, Secretary of the Navy Richard V. Spencer told a Senate panel. Staff Sgt. Christopher K.A. Slutman, 43, of Newark, Del., Cpl. Robert A. Hendriks, 25, of Locust Valley, N.Y. and Sgt. Benjamin S. Hines, 31, of York, Penn. were near Bagram Air Base in a convoy when they were attacked. They were assigned to 25th Marine Regiment, 4th Marine Division, Marine Forces Reserve. An unspecified number of other troops were also injured in the attack and treated, according to a Pentagon statement. **READ MORE**

**Canada increases contribution to multinational counter-terrorism naval**

task force

Government of Canada

Canada has significantly increased its contribution to Operation ARTEMIS, the Canadian Armed Forces' (CAF) ongoing contribution to counter-terrorism and maritime security operations in Middle Eastern and East African waters. Her Majesty's Canadian Ship (HMCS) Regina, Naval Replenishment Unit (NRU) Asterix, and a CP-140 Aurora aircraft have joined the Canadian-led Combined Task Force 150 (CTF 150). CTF 150 is a task force under Combined Maritime Forces, a naval coalition of 33 nations, that promotes security and stability in Middle Eastern and East African waters. READ MORE

Old ammo, TNT safely neutralized in East Vancouver neighbourhood

Global News

Vancouver police dispatched their experts last night to an East Vancouver neighbourhood to safely dispose of some explosive material a resident had discovered in a storage locker. Last week, the VPD were called to an apartment building on East 37th Avenue near Victoria Drive after someone cleaning out a deceased family member's storage locker found a box of old ammunition and explosives. READ MORE

Anniversary of Vimy Ridge commemorated in Cloverdale ceremony

North Delta Reporter

Veterans, cadets and dignitaries from across the Lower Mainland recently came to Cloverdale to commemorate the 102nd anniversary of the Battle of Vimy Ridge. The service honoured those who fought at Vimy Ridge, including Surrey soldiers whose names are inscribed on the Cloverdale Cenotaph at the centre of the service, Harry Triggs and Frank Donald Aish. READ MORE

Les ministres de la Défense et des Anciens combattants soulignent le Jour de la bataille de la crête de Vimy

45e Nord

Lawrence MacAulay, ministre des Anciens Combattants et ministre associé de la Défense nationale, et Harjit S. Sajjan, ministre de la Défense nationale, ont fait la déclaration suivante pour souligner le Jour de la bataille de la crête de Vimy : « Il y a plus d'un siècle aujourd'hui, durant la Première Guerre mondiale, le Corps canadien a avancé sur les positions défensives allemandes sur la crête de Vimy dans le nord de la France. LIRE PLUS

The hot cold war: Inside Canada's military training mission in Ukraine

CBC News

It's a long way from the killing fields of Kandahar to the laneways of Lviv, Ukraine — but for Col. Pierre Leroux, the newer conflict carries some echoes of the older one. When Leroux arrived in Afghanistan in the fall of 2010, the Canadian army was helping to train Afghan forces to fight in the middle of a shooting war with the insurgent Taliban. In 2019, Leroux leads the Canadian task force training Ukrainian soldiers to fight an equally deadly, hot-and-cold conventional war with Russian-backed separatists in Ukraine's eastern regions. READ MORE

600 military vehicles moves through Capital Region

Sherwood Park News

You may have recently spotted some Canada Forces vehicles driving around Strathcona County. Military personnel were moving the vehicles from Canadian Forces Base Edmonton to Wainwright for a large-scale military exercise. Convoys of military vehicles were driving through the area until Saturday, April 6. Around 600 vehicles in total are making the trip, which has them start east on Anthony Henday Drive. READ MORE

Watchdog: Canadian military spying activities require more scrutiny

Huffington Post

A national-security watchdog has called for stricter controls on the Canadian military's spying, including the possibility of legislation spelling out when and how defence intelligence operations can take place. In a report issued recently, the National Security and Intelligence Committee of Parliamentarians said National Defence and the Canadian Armed Forces have one of the largest intelligence programs in Canada, yet these operations get little outside scrutiny. READ MORE

Forces armées: une centaine de militaires s'envolent vers l'Ukraine

TVA Nouvelles

Plus d'une centaine de militaires de Valcartier s'envoleront vers l'Ukraine aujourd'hui, dans le cadre de l'opération UNIFIER, qui vise à soutenir les forces de sécurité ukrainiennes. Les militaires, principalement du 5e Groupe-brigade mécanisé du Canada (5 GBMC), seront en déploiement pour une durée du six à sept mois. LIRE PLUS

U.S. Army funds research on nanoporous materials for water purification

University of Arkansas

Contaminants from munitions can make their way into our water supply through runoff, and they are surprisingly common pollutants. Hassan Beyzavi, an assistant professor in the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry, is investigating the use of nanoporous structures to detect and remove these contaminants in water. His research is supported with an award from the U.S. Army Small Business Innovation Research Program. READ MORE

Mefloquine lawsuits set to be filed by veterans in the next week

Global News

Dave Bona spent 14 years with the Canadian Armed Forces. He plans to soon to launch a lawsuit against the government over the mental and physical health issues he said were caused by the antimalarial drug, mefloquine. Bona, 51, was deployed to Somalia in 1992 and Rwanda in 1994. He said he took mefloquine for a total of 13 months during the two deployments. READ MORE

100 kilometres on snowshoes: Harrowing Arctic journey bonds military and

civilian women

CBC News

As a flight service specialist, Teresa Griffith monitors weather conditions from her office in Leduc, south of Edmonton. But this week, she's trekking through snow and wind in Canada's North. Griffith recently began a two-week female-led expedition through Nunavut's Baffin Island. The group of 14 women, along with guides and support staff, are snowshoeing 100 kilometres through Akshayuk Pass, a natural corridor cutting through mountains and ice. READ MORE

Le Canada doit vite augmenter sa présence militaire en Arctique, insiste un député

Radio-Canada

Le coprésident canadien de la Commission permanente mixte de défense Canada-États-Unis, le député libéral John McKay, prévient que si le Canada n'agit pas maintenant, il pourrait perdre son emprise sur l'Arctique, à mesure que la Russie développe la militarisation de cette région. LIRE PLUS

International Mine Awareness Day

United Nations Development Programme

UNDP has supported mine action initiatives — Development and Mine Action — since 1993, when we launched our first program in Cambodia. Since then, UNDP has supported mine action programs in over 40 countries. In close cooperation with civil society, donors and our UN partners, we have focused on capacity building of Member States and governments, and linked mine action centrally to our core mandate which is development. READ MORE

Japanese space probe Hayabusa2 drops explosive onto asteroid Ryugu, apparently making crater to collect samples from underground

CBS News

Japan's space agency said an explosive recently dropped from its Hayabusa2 spacecraft successfully blasted the surface of an asteroid for the first time to form a crater and pave the way for the collection of underground samples for possible clues to the origin of the solar system. The mission was the riskiest for Hayabusa2 because it had to immediately move away so it wouldn't get hit by flying shards from the blast. READ MORE

Unsubscribe